

Islam and Image: Beyond Aniconism and Iconoclasm

Three Ottoman sultans, from Tercüme-i Miftâh-i cifrü'l-câmi' (The Translation of the Key to Esoteric Knowledge) © The Trustees of the Chester Beatty Library, Dublin

Wednesdays at 5pm

- 16 January The Making of an Image Problem
- 23 January Mimesis and Magic: The Lives of Images Revisited
- 30 January Regulating the Gaze in the Medieval Mosque
- 06 February Economies of Imaging: Bowls, Baths and Bazaars
- 13 February Grammars of Defacement: Censure and Redemption
- 20 February Figuring for Piety: Strategies of Negotiation
- 27 February Statue Histories: Iconoclasm as Anti-Colonialism
- 06 March Beyond Enlightenment? Towards a Conclusion
Followed by questions and a discussion